This morning, you'll be heading out to visit Canyonlands and Island in the Sky Mesa. Every overlook offers a different perspective on the brilliant landscapes of this National Park. Imagine wave after wave of deep canyons, towering mesas, pinnacles, cliffs and spires stretching as far as the eye can see! You'll also visit Dead Horse Point with breathtaking panoramic views of Canyonlands' sculptured pinnacles and buttes. And don't be surprised if it looks familiar - it's one of the most photographed viewpoints in Utah. Remember back when you saw Thelma and Louise plunge their classic '66 Thunderbird off the cliff - well, it wasn't really shot at the Grand Canyon, but right here! You'll have lunch on your own in the Canyonlands before returning to Moab with some free time to shop, wander or relax. The 2,200 foot canyon walls tower above as your guide skillfully navigates the river, pointing out features such as a fossilized sea bed, Indian petroglyphs and the wonderful views of the arches! Once darkness settles in, the real show begins with 40,000 watts of natural light illuminating the canyon walls. Lights, shadows, music, and narration make the stories of the canyon's formation, creation, and history come to life on the high walls above the river!
